

MANIFESTO OF LOW EXPECTATIONS.

This place is not for everyone—
and we're okay with that.

If you're looking to unplug, settle in, and stay awhile, you'll fit right in.

This is not a resort.
It's a small cabin on a quiet stretch of lake—
and that's exactly the point.

Cabins: cozy
Showers: also cozy
Wi-Fi: generally
cooperative

You'll get a map.
You may need it.
We promise it's there.

We are not in the middle of anything.
That is the feature.

THE FINE PRINT (BUT NOT REALLY)

Cabins are small. That's part of the charm.
If you need space to spread out, the outdoors does the heavy lifting.

Outdoor spaces are communal. Think camp-style—grills, firepit, dock. Make s'mores. Make a friend.

Wildlife is active. Raccoons especially. No food left outside and no doors left open unattended—they're quick and not shy.

You're in nature. Expect bugs, wind, dust,
and the occasional surprise.

We're nearby and happy to help. If something's off or you need anything, just reach out.
